BEST PRACTICE

Practice #1 Title – Decentralization Management

Objective – To handle the various activities of the College effectively and efficiently.

Context – The various aspects of the College like the Cultural events, Sports, Discipline, Canteen facility, Library, Placement etc could not be controlled and upgraded by Centralized management system.

Practice – Different sub-committees were formed with a Convener of each sub-committee to look after the different aspects of the College.

Evidence of Success – Members of each Committee meet frequently to discuss about various problems associated with the said Committee and tries to resolve it.

Resources required – Financial support is required when necessary and extra time of the Committee members are also required.

Problems encountered – No such problem

Practice #2 Title – Transparent student Admission procedure

Objective – To make the Admission procedure transparent to avoid any false allegation to the College.

Context – The number of students passing the 12th standard has increased over time but the seat capacity has not increased proportionately. Due to this, there has been huge pressure of Admission in our College.

Practice – The entire process of Admission is based on the Merit list and Counselling. The Merit list is prepared for both Honours and Pass Course. Forms are easily available from the Office and also online. Commencement and closing of Admission follows the University norms. Candidates outside the Merit list are not entertained.

Evidence of Success – The students and their Guardians do not have any grievances against the Admission procedure.

Resources required – Financial resources are required.

Problems encountered – No such problem
